

Joining Instructions for MSc Construction Project Management

Welcome

On behalf of all the staff involved in the delivery of the MSc in Construction Project Management, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you to this programme.

Regardless of regional differences across the world, it is acknowledged that the process of delivering construction projects is fraught with numerous challenges. The effective management of construction projects is thus essential. This programme has therefore been carefully designed with the input of key industry players to equip you with the knowledge and skills you need to advance your career in the area of managing construction projects.

As you journey through the programme, I encourage you to take full advantage of all the opportunities the programme offers and I also wish you success in your studies.

Krzysztof Dziekonski, Course Leader

Before you arrive

We will start sending out UWE Bristol IT account information once you have met the conditions of your offer, so keep an eye out for the email – it will be sent to the email address you provided us during your application.

1. Make sure you've activated your UWE Bristol IT account: Follow the instructions to activate your account. Once your account has been activated, please be aware that all future emails from the university will only be sent to you UWE Bristol email address. You can check it easily through myUWE (my.uwe.ac.uk) or Microsoft's Office365. You might want to go ahead and set your email up on your mobile device, ready for the academic year.
2. Complete your online registration through myUWE (my.uwe.ac.uk).

It is essential that you follow the steps above to complete your registration. You will not be able to access Blackboard (your Virtual Learning Environment) and myUWE (your student portal) until you have registered.

Please visit the Registration webpages for further information on how to register.

Please note: These joining instructions are provided on the assumption that you will meet the conditions of your offer and be eligible to take up your place. They are not confirmation of an offer.

Mandatory sessions

Course induction:

Your course induction is compulsory, so don't make any other plans. Part-time students are only required to attend the first day, the dissertation preparation is optional.

Date:	Thursday 17 January 2019
Time:	09:00 am
Location (map):	Room 4Q04, Q Block, Frenchay Campus
You'll need to bring:	Photo ID (passport/driving licence) to collect your UWE ID card

Registration session:

There will be a registration session during your course induction. You must attend this session to confirm your attendance and complete your registration. You will be able to speak to university staff about any registration or fee payment queries and collect your student ID card.

Dissertation Module Training:

Full-time students and part-time students in your second year are expected to attend research training in preparation for your dissertation module. Any Part-Time students who want to get an early insight into what the dissertation involves are also welcome to join these sessions.

The training will take place on 17th and 18th January 2019. Click here for full details.

Optional Sessions

International Student Orientation, Registration and airport pick-ups:

Home Office regulations require you to attend registration in person at the start of your time at UWE Bristol, and every year after this. We have a Welcome Hub on Frenchay campus so you can register in person and collect your student ID card. Your registration won't be complete until you've had your passport, qualifications and visa checked. The Hub will be open:

Week beginning 7 and 14 January from 10:00 to 16:00

Week beginning 21 and 28 January from 10:00 to 14:00

The Orientation event is designed to help you settle in at UWE Bristol. You will find information and support with opening a bank account, registering with a doctor, finding a part-time job and much more.

The event will take place on Tuesday 8 January from 10:00 to 14:00, Dartington Suite Farmhouse, Frenchay Campus.

In order for you to arrive in time for the orientation, we provide free airport pickups on Monday 7 at 10:00am from Heathrow Airport Terminal 3. The deadline for booking your pick-up is Friday 21 December at 12:00pm UK time.

Please check our pages as we will regularly update them with relevant information.

Teaching timetables

Your teaching timetable will be available under the 'Courses' tab on myUWE. You will not be able to access your timetable until you are fully registered and have paid your fees.

If your timetable doesn't appear on that date, please contact the Information Point and they will help. Unfortunately, we are unable to confirm your teaching timetable before the publication date.

Course information to help you prepare

A core text that is used for the programme is Construction Project Management: An Integrated Approach (2nd Edition), by Peter Fewings. It is available as an eBook online via the university library and there are also printed copies in the library, but you may still prefer to get a personal copy.

In October 2014, the university held a public lecture on the exemplary safety record achieved during the construction of the London 2012 Olympic Park. The public lecture was very well attended by industry practitioners, academics, students and members of the general public. The lecture is available online and you are encouraged to watch it prior to joining the programme.
